

TF?! | tradefor #getmoney creative grant contest

why are you doing this grant?

our mission began as a way to tie in a lost relative who was considered to be on the spectrum. tying in old ideas and thoughts into ways in which it could become most purposeful. our reason for doing this grant is in efforts to push our mission, which is to create a safe space for the disability community & their allies to better control their own narrative, find resources, utilize their talents and tools while learning, becoming making and maintaining friendships in both a personal and professional way.

who is this grant for?

this grant aims to help those who may identify as alt-normative, special, unique, diverse, special, deformed, deficient, chronically-ill & their allies. cancer survivors, warriors of diseases or illnesses they've combated and won, as well as those who struggle with mental health, are welcome to apply.

how often are you going to do this grant?

this is our first official, micro-granting contest. though our founder has donated before privately as well as issued gifts in a smaller size on a rolling basis to her followers, we are still getting a feel for what people within this community want and what they can use. our level of giving will reflect what we can realistically do, and what we see is a need, and how many people we may be able to reach. if we are using this first time contest to measure what is needed, who is responsive and whether this is a true need in this community or not.

though everyone loves money, we do not wish that to be the main focus so reflective of what can be done resource wise, we will decide on how often this grant will be done. as of rightnow we hope to do one a year and eventually get to a point where we can provide these quarterly.

why is there an application fee?

application plays a role for many reasons. one, it is the norm for many grant applications these days and we wanted to provide a platform that allowed many people to apply at a lower more affordable cost than many other grants. The fearless fund and amber grants provide a 20.00 fee and many felt was a bit out of their budget but were also seeking assistance. the idea is to welcome many different communities to the idea of launching their company, without the pressures of adding too many financial stressors. This fee allows us to supply this grant hopefully without harming the pockets of the applicants. the fees in its cumulative go into the fund itself allowing us to add more resources and tools to the applicants whether they win the overall prize or not. we can then put the time in making sure answers and needs get met.

what do you mean by voting committee?

we try to keep the selection process as unbiased as possible and aim to make sure everyone feels seen. even though we do not know if we will get any applicants or not, we want to make sure no application goes overlooked and that more than one person is responsible for imputing a decision. the voters will have a qualification outline they will use to discern who out of their batch should be selected.

can relatives of the company and its board apply?

if you are related to any party of the contest we ask that you not apply. by relation we mean, direct blood.

what do you mean by “on a rolling basis”?

a rolling basis means that we want to get to a point where we can responsibly receive applications throughout the year and dedicate the time resources and tools needed to make sure we select people unbiased-ly and give them quality time and resources.

do we get refunded our money?

application fees, are processing fees. we cannot refund the application fee. we do keep each application past a 6 month cycle for continued review. we may randomly reward businesses at later dates, at our discretion if our collective and fund grow.

where does the extra dollar go?

we are not too sure what you mean by extra dollar? nor added funds? but we do know any donations given are allocated to the need the donor specifies at the time of giving. when donating, the user has an option to select the category in which the funds are used. the fund itself, will help those who are members, and applicants of the company. whether it is providing another grant or providing other resources, like one-on-one are there any completely free grants given?

yes you can find many free grants online to apply to. as far as our company is concerned, smaller cash gifts, donations and/or giveaways for free have been done and hopefully can continue.

when is the best time to apply?

we encourage everyone to apply as soon as they can. the earlier the better. we cannot control the response and if we have to close sooner, we want as many people who wish to apply, to apply.

why is there a closing date?

this lets applicant know when we can no longer accept applications. it gives us a time to organize applications, give the required attention, time, thought and feedback, along with any additional info we may need.

how can we help the fund?

if you want to be a leader in our talk back session please email us at inquiries@doyoutradefor.com we are also always open to sponsorship, and collaborative efforts. you can find our donations link by going to the extra tab.

who to contact if we have any questions?

you can send any questions to inquiries@doyoutradefor.com what if I am having issues sending in an application online?

you can always print out form and fill it out and send it to 1729 markley st norristown, pa. address title name as tf?! creative contest all other guidelines must be followed. we make no assurances that form will be received in time if delivered there. we make no assurances of privacy upheld if sent there.

is this the only grant of its kind? there are many grants provided all over. look at the bottom of the grant page to find links to other websites that provide consistent grants/money contest and the like. as far as us, this is our one and only official grant. our founder and/or her partners or peers may individually as person separate from this entity may gift, donate, reward at their own liberty which we do not track nor question, but this is the only tf?! | tradefor #getmoney creative contest are you only awarding one business this time around?

we are seeing what happens with this effort in providing this grant. we do not know what to expect and therefor think that maybe only one will be selected as a winner. we are asking that applicants tell us the amount they are seeking and what it would be used for so that we may further realize what amount is more valuable to the community and what can they realistically do. we may determine more than one winner, or may reward multiple if we open on a rolling basis, rightnow, we just want to supply at least one person with additional help if we can in hopes on starting this grant fund.

open to all creatives in any industry. please follow the law as it is your responsibility with how you manage, allocate your funding. we do not monitor finances upon winners receipt of the grant. we do not prioritize, gambling, finance nor network marketing companies.
